LEITURA DOS ACTOS DOS APÓSTOLOS 14, 21B-27

Naqueles dias, Paulo e Barnabé voltaram a Listra, a Icônio e a Antioquia. Iam fortalecendo as almas dos discípulos e exortavam-nos a permanecerem firmes na fé, «porque – diziam eles – temos de sofrer muitas tribulações para entrarmos no reino de Deus». Estabeleceram anciãos em cada Igreja, depois de terem feito orações acompanhadas de jejum, e encomendaram-nos ao Senhor, em quem tinham acreditado. Atravessaram então a Pisídia e chegaram à Panfília; depois, anunciaram a palavra em Perga e desceram até Atalia. De lá embarcaram para Antioquia, de onde tinham partido, confiados na graça de Deus, para a obra que acabavam de realizar. À chegada, convocaram a Igreja, contaram tudo o que Deus fizera com eles e como abrisse aos gentios a porta da fé. Palavra do Senhor.

EVANGELHO DE NOSSO SENHOR JESUS CRISTO SEGUNDO SÃO JOÃO 13,31-33A-34-35

Quando Judas saiu do Cenáculo, disse Jesus aos seus discípulos: Agora foi glorificado o Filho do homem e Deus foi glorificado n'Ele. Se Deus foi glorificado n'Ele, Deus também O glorificará em Si mesmo e glorificá-l'O-á sem demora. Meus filhos, é por pouco tempo que ainda estou convosco. Dou-vos um mandamento novo: que vos ameis uns aos outros. Como Eu vos amei, amai-vos também uns aos outros. Nisto conhecerão todos que sois meus discípulos: se vos amardes uns aos outros. Palavra da salvação.

ENGLISH VERSION:

HOLY GOSPEL JOHN 13,31-33A.34-35.

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. (If God is glorified in him,) God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. You will look for me, and as I told the Jews, 'Where I go you cannot come,' so now I say it to you. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."The Gospel of The Lord.

St.Rita

Rita, whose birth name was Margherita Lotti, was born in 1381 in Roccaporena, near Cascia in Umbria, Italy. Rita wished to enter religious life from an early age, but her parents arranged her marriage—common at the time—at age twelve to Paolo Mancini. Paolo was wealthy, quick to anger, and vengeful. Rita bore Paolo two sons, but Paolo treated her harshly. He was physically and emotionally abusive, unfaithful, and had entangled himself in the ongoing feud between the Guelph and Ghibelline factions.

Rita responded to these evils with heroic endurance and kind patience. Through her prayers and witness, her husband Paolo repented of his evil life and embarked on changing himself. He refused to participate any longer in the Mancini-Chiqui family feud, but in spite of this, he was ambushed and killed by a Chiqui family member. Rita publicly forgave her husband's murderers and sought to end any revenge attacks from the Mancini family. But Bernardo, Paolo's brother, instigated her two sons to join the feud and avenge their father. Rita's sons went to live with Bernardo and began to imitate their father's pre-conversion life of vice. Fearing that her sons would follow their father and die a violent death, Rita beseeched God to prevent their taking revenge. A short time later, her sons died of dysentery, an answer to Rita's prayers that they would not die in mortal sin.

Love one Another

Lord God almighty, you have loved us throughout all time. We share in this love as we try to obey your command to love one another. Through this new commandment, we reach out in love to our brothers and sisters when we offer service to those in need, when we forgive one another, and make daily sacrifices for others, all so that your glory will be revealed. May our expressions of love for one another show our love for you. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, May 19, 2019 A New Heaven and a New Earth

“Behold, I make all things new.” In the Second Reading, John’s description of a new heaven and a new earth provides a glimpse of the Parousia, a time when everything will be made new. The glory of God will be revealed then and the faithful will be transformed. This reading is one of the options for a funeral. Mourners are comforted by hearing of the old order passing away and the person entering a place where pain does not exist. Before Jesus left his disciples, he gave them a new Commandment that would lead to a new way of being. By loving one another, Jesus said, they would be known as his disciples. Love is a witness to the world. Jesus tells his followers to love “as I have loved you.” How is this love different from the way human beings often love? During the fifty days of Easter, we rejoice in knowing that Jesus loved us so much that he died and rose from the dead, releasing from death those who believe. Knowing Christ means becoming more like him, loving others as he loved. How can you continue to be open to God’s transforming love so that your life can glorify him? Reflect on this during your quiet prayer time.
